

Youth Ballet and Contemporary Dance of Saskatchewan

Dancer Code of Conduct

⊙Collaboration ⊙Community Enhancement ⊙Creativity ⊙Inclusivity

⊙Performance Oriented ⊙Safety ⊙Whole-person focus

Youth Ballet and Contemporary Dance of Saskatchewan (Youth Ballet) is a safe and happy environment for learning dance. Teamwork is very important and dancers are expected to treat each other and their instructors with kindness and respect in and out of the studio.

It is expected that all dancers will achieve their goals by following the Youth Ballet - Dancer Code of Conduct.

- Attend classes regularly.
 - If you need to miss a class please communicate this with the Youth Ballet office and try to meet up with a fellow classmate to go through any missed material.
- Arrive to class on time.
 - Warm-up is done at the start of every class and it is imperative that all dancers participate in warm-up to ensure that their body is ready for physical activity and movement.
- Dress appropriately
 - Respect the dress code recommendations for each class.
 - No jewellery to be worn to class, (stud earrings are permitted).
- RESPECT your teachers and other dancers at all times.
 - Dancers are expected to focus and pay attention to direction from instructors and keep talking to a minimum.
 - Cell phones must be turned off during dance class.
 - Dancers observing a dance class for any reason are expected to be quiet and courteous to the dancers, Dance Teachers, and Assistants
 - Unnecessary disruptions of dances classes are not cool and are not acceptable.
 - Rude or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated in class. Dancers behaving inappropriately will be removed from the class. The Youth Ballet reserves the right to suspend or expel a dancer for rude or inappropriate behaviour towards staff or any other student.
- Bullying of any kind will not be tolerated while at Youth Ballet.
- Dancers must treat the studios, the premises, and the possessions of all other dancers with respect, care, and consideration.
 - Help clean up any messes and pick up items left behind while at the studio.
 - Do not take any food or drinks into studio. Only “non-spill” Water bottles are allowed in studio.

Work hard, try hard, and become the best dancer you can be!
